THE RIPPER OUTDONE.

Is Outrivalled by a Brutal South Chicago Murderer.

BUTCHERED BY HER NEPHEW.

The Victim Hacked to Pieces by Her Assassin.

He is Captured by the Police and Fully Confesses His Crime.

Associated Press Dispatches.

CHICAGO, May 9.—A murder, the shocking details of which savor more of uncivilized butchery than has been known for years in Chicago, was committed between 5 and 6 o'clock this evening in the home of Michael Walsh, at No. 344 Washburn avenue. His wife, Bridget Elizabeth, met death in a manner that rivals for cruelty and horror the fates of the numerous victims in the London White Chapel district. At the usual time yesterday morning Walsh left home to go to work. He is a teamster, and usually went out early in order to have his team in readiness. As he passed through the kitchen where his wife was washing dishes he bade her good-bye in accordance with a custom he had for a long time followed. Contrary to his expectation Walsh returned home a few minutes after 6 o'clock. He tried the front door, but found it locked. He went around the house to a rear door leading to the kitchen. There was a fire burning in the stove, the evening meal had been partially prepared and the cooking utensils were in their accustomed places. After searching for his wife for some time he was horrified at finding her body in a terribly mutilated condition in the bedroom. Sixty-five gashes varying in length from half an inch to a foot told the story of a death that had come only after a violent struggle, as was shown by the disarrangement of furniture and the spattering of blood. The wounds were most numerous on her breast and lower limbs, where the flesh was ripped in places and hacked until the skin hung in threads. Over each eye was a deep cut, another beneath the right ear, another along the left cheek and still another on the neck under the chin. In the left breast a knife immediately over the heart was a pair of long blades which had been driven into the flesh. A broom that had been carried from the kitchen into the bedroom had been broken and the handle was thrust through the entire length of the woman's trunk from the lower portion to the throat. Pieces of vital organs had been torn off and carried along by the blunt edge of the wood and the mouth was filled with a mass of blood and flesh.

Within four hours after the murder Mrs. Walsh's self-confessed murderer was arrested. He was Thomas Walsh, son of No. 143 Washburn avenue, the dead woman's nephew. When he was taken to the station house Walsh acknowledged that he was the guilty party, and that he had made an improper proposal to Mrs. Walsh, whereupon she slapped his face. He drew a knife and stabbed her and the sight of blood suddenly drove him insane, with the result that he mangled and tore the poor woman, as stated above.

A VERY YOUNG HOLD UP.

He Tries to Rob a Ranchman Near Kit Carson.

CHERRYVILLE, Colo., May 9.—A lad of 13 years, hailing from Belleville, Kansas, and giving his name as John Knowles, attempted to hold up Frank Van Dyne, a ranchman, near Kit Carson, Colorado, yesterday. Knowles had been employed for some time past as a herder on John McIntyre's sheep ranch near Wild Horse. Yesterday he left the ranch and went to Kit Carson, taking with him a six-shooter and Winchester rifle belonging to McIntyre. He there called on Frank Van Dyne, a ranchman on Rush creek.

On the way to Van Dyne's ranch, and when about five miles south of Kit Carson, he covered Van Dyne with his Winchester and ordered him to give up his money.

It was with considerable difficulty that Van Dyne finally convinced the boy that he had nothing of value upon his person, whereupon the boy ordered him to drive on and the order was obeyed. Van Dyne reached Kit Carson by a circuitous route and secured the arrest of the boy. He pleaded guilty yesterday in Justice Slatery's court and is now in jail.

The boy takes the matter coolly and when informed that Van Dyne had several hundred dollars on his person expressed contempt for himself for having let him off so easily. The boy had read liberally of dime novel literature and when arrested had quite a stock in his possession. With a few years and their experience he will be a perfect criminal.

IMAGINED HE WAS RICH.

A Preacher's Strange Action—Thought to be Insane.

DES MOINES, May 9.—Rev. Frederick J. A. Stiles, a Methodist preacher, about a year ago came to Des Moines without means to buy bread for a breakfast. He was taken in by one of the pastors here and finally given charge of a church in Peru, this state. Two or three weeks ago he was reported to be a multi-millionaire. It was reported that his god-father, a bachelor, had died in Bristol, England, and left him a fortune. He bought land on the east side and began a $100,000 residence, and appeared at two banks and presented drafts for $25,000 each on Bristol, England. In one bank, it is said, he made a loan. He was going to spend all the money for the good of Methodism and the people of Des Moines. Today a cablegram was received from three banks in Bristol saying Stiles is not known there. The whole scheme has collapsed. Stiles has deceived himself for others. It is now believed that he is affected mentally.

Stiles was seen tonight. He says he is worth what he represents himself to be, and is neither a crank nor insane, but will carry out his plans as announced.

THE SPEAKER'S CHAIR.

A Work of Art Being Manufactured for the Convention Hall.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., May 9.—The West Manufacturing company of this city will have the honor of making the chair which the presiding officer of the Republican national convention at Minneapolis will occupy. As has already been announced the Superior concern received an order to make 7,000 chairs for use in the convention.

The chair is to be a magnificent affair, done in oak with elaborate carving. The back will consist of the National coat of arms, being surmounted by a shield bearing the presentation inscription and view of St. Anthony at Minneapolis.

The shield will be supported by an intricate piece of carving representing kernels of wheat. The chair arms will be made of heavy pieces of oak, and will be fastened at either end into a miniature flour barrel.

At the front end of each arm will appear the head of the great American eagle, whose outstretched wings will run back a considerable distance, and whose claws, resting on a flour barrel, will furnish a support for the chair in front. At both top and bottom of the back will appear considerable carving representing the principal cereals.

All the molding, and there will be many, will represent kernels of wheat.

PURSUIT WAS VAIN.

THE FLIGHT OF JAMES P. AVERY FROM HIS WIFE.

She is the Daughter of an Arkansas Millionaire—Falls to Overtake Her Recalcitrant Spouse and His Paramour.

NORWALK, Conn., May 9.—About a year ago James P. Avery and wife came to this city and took a suit of rooms at the Norwalk hotel. Mrs. Avery is a pretty woman. Her husband joined the fashionable Norwalk club and entered society. He became acquainted with Mrs. Melville L. Kellogg, head operator in the Bell Telephone central office. Mrs. Kellogg is about 25 years of age and lives with her husband, a theatrical man. Mr. Kellogg was away most of the time and knew nothing of what was going on, but Mrs. Avery watched with sorrow the path her husband was taking. A package of letters fell into Mrs. Avery's hands last week. One of the more recent epistles from Mrs. Kellogg was in effect, it is said, that she was in trouble and urged as the only way out of it that she and Avery leave. They were to meet here at noon Friday and go west.

When Mrs. Avery heard of this she left Boston at about the same time as her husband, but by a different route. Avery heard of this and telegraphed to Mrs. Kellogg, requesting her to join him on the 10:11 express train at South Norwalk. She did so, and the two are now supposed to be on their way west. Mrs. Avery landed at the South Norwalk depot about half an hour after her husband left it. Then Mrs. Avery made known much of the foregoing story. She also produced from the folds of her dress a bull-dog revolver with every chamber loaded, and also a long black rawhide, with a heavy handle loaded with lead. The whip she said was for the purpose of administering a sound flogging to her rival, and with the pistol she intended to blow out her husband's brains. She said her husband had left her penniless. Mrs. Avery is a daughter of Gen. A. B. Hadley, a millionaire of Little Rock, Arkansas.

SHOT AT HER HUSBAND.

A Worthless Ranchman's Life Threatened by His Desperate Wife.

CLINTON, Mo., May 9.—A neglected woman behind a pistol, urged to desperation by the struggle for bread for herself and two children, and a worthless husband as a target made an interesting scene in the neighboring town of Windsor on Tuesday. More than two years ago a man named Creed deserted his family in this city and has since been living with other women to the neglect of his wife and babies. The wife did what she could to support the family. Finally, weary of the struggle, she shot herself and went after the recalcitrant husband. She fired three shots at him, all of which went wide of the mark. The man fled precipitately, whereupon the wife procured the trunk and personal effects of the husband and returned home. She is a plucky little woman and stands in no danger of an arraignment, unless it be for inaccuracy of aim.

BADLY CUT UP.

A Well Known Horseman Probably Fatally Injured.

MACON, Mo., May 9.—Louis E. Malone, a lively man, was cut last evening by a horse in a terrible manner. Malone first stuck a pitchfork into Hancock's breast, and the latter pulled it out, rushing at Malone with a knife. The muscles of Malone's arm were severed, a deep, long cut was made in his left side and his left hand was gashed. When Malone was being conveyed home he said: "Good by, boys, I'll never see you again." He was formerly in the livery business in Huntsville, and is well known among horsemen. His condition is dangerous. Hancock is in charge of Marshal Banta. The affair grew out of Malone's whistling to a friend and Hancock thought he was being ridiculed.

A Marshal Arrested.

UTICA, N. Y., May 9.—Deputy U. S. Marshal McElwain has been arrested on a bench warrant, charged with aiding Bunco O'Brien to escape. This is supposed to be the first trial of the work of the grand jury on the escape. McElwain brought Keeper Buck and O'Brien from Dannan.

Reduction in the Price of Salt.

SAGINAW, Mich., May 9.—The Michigan Salt Co. reduced the price of salt for a barrel at all western agencies. The cut is to meet New York and Ohio competition.

HORRIBLE!

A Fearful Holocaust Occurs at Tombstone.

PERISHED IN THE FLAMES.

Two Persons Lose Their Lives in the Fire.

Sam Barrows' Son and Clerk the Unfortunate Victims.

Special to THE REPUBLICAN.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., May 9.—A horrible holocaust occurred this morning, resulting in the fearful death of two persons.

Early this morning the living house of Sam Barrows was discovered to be in flames, and was consumed almost like gun powder, the efforts to arrest the fire being futile.

But the most horrible part of the affair is the death of Mr. Barrows' little son, Sam, and a young man who was clerking for him, it being impossible to rescue them from the flames.

The sad calamity has cast a gloom over the entire community.

MURDER BY A BOY ROBBER.

A Young Newark Scamp Kills a Man to Secure Money.

NEWARK, N. J., May 9.—Thomas Hayden was killed last Saturday while returning from the bank with a sum of money. Yesterday, as the result of clues given by a boy, Aiden Fales, aged 15, was arrested for the crime.

The boy made a full confession. He said he was employed by the Potter bleaching company, which employed Hayden also, until several weeks ago, when he was discharged because he was bad. When thinking of ways in which he might get money he remembered Hayden, and Saturday waited around the rear entrance of the shop for the shipping clerk to return with the money. As soon as Hayden entered the door he lifted a bale stick and struck him on the head from behind, felling him. He struck him three more blows, after which he took from him $5000. After he left the shop he was seen by the boy who had notified the police.

WON'T BUY APPLIANCES.

Jay Gould is Anxious for the Repeal of Western Laws.

ST. PAUL, May 9.—The railway men are—J. is the substance of Jay Gould's utterance, from the mouth of his son, on the question of safety appliances as reported by the Hon. L. G. Coffin, the apostle of that reform. Mr. Coffin addressed a union meeting of railway men at Fort Dodge, Iowa, and stated that of the 175,000 miles of railway in this country, 125,000 are without safety appliances on all new equipments. The one great railway system which will give no encouragement to the movement is the Gould system. Mr. Coffin called on George Gould, hoping to receive some encouragement. Gould brought his fist down on the table and declared his road would not spend a dollar for safety appliances until the western states had repealed their railway laws.

WILL CURTAIL THE OUTPUT.

New York Tanning Firms Propose Lessening the Sole Leather Supply.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A call signed by twenty-five prominent leather tanning firms in and around New York city has been issued for a meeting next Saturday morning. The trade, the merchants say, is in a depressed condition, and an effort will be made to curtail the output of sole leather. The meeting will consider a proposition not to wet any hides for a period of three months. If the markets have not broadened by that time the tanners will continue to curtail the output until it does.

MILLION DOLLAR FAILURE.

Robinson Woolen Company of Kansas City Assigns.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 4.—The Robinson Woolen company of Kansas City, wholesale dealers in suitings, cloths, trimmings, etc., with branch retail stores in St. Louis, Topeka, and Wichita, Kansas, signed a deed of general assignment in all of the four cities simultaneously this morning at 9 o'clock, to George G. Emory of Kansas City, for the benefit of their creditors. Assets are estimated at $1,000,000; liabilities unknown.

HELD FOR CATTLE THEFT.

Three Men Likely to go to the Kansas Penitentiary.

OLATHIE, Kas., May 9.—Sheriff Easdale of this county arrested last night at Urlich, Mo., C. W. Hardin, L. M. Boone and Henry Tubbs for stealing three head of cattle valued at $4,500 from the Thomas P. Maslin ranch in the eastern part of this county, last Friday. The men confessed. They live at Leeds, Jackson county, Mo.

Kicked From a Hotel.

NIAGARA FALLS, May 9.—A sensation was created here when Robert P. Murphy, the manager of Hotel Porter, one of the new hotels here, kicked Clement, a well-known society man and was of R. D. Porter, a wealthy citizen, one of the famous Porter family, out of the hotel. The elder Porter owns the hotel, and the son on pretense of looking after his father's interests made a general landing place there. He was accustomed to drink heavily, and yesterday made a disgraceful scene at the hotel, using vile and profane language. Murphy proceeded to fire the young man and thereupon brought down on his head the ire of the entire Porter family. He was arrested for assault, and a big trial will be the result.

Binding Twine Advanced.

MASON CITY, Io., May 9.—The National Cordage company has now for the first time given its price on Sisal twine, which is from 1 1/2c to 1 1/4c per pound higher than last season. The dealers who are compelled to buy Sisal twine now must of necessity sell at not less than 12c per pound. Those who were fortunate enough to place their contracts before the National Cordage company gained complete control can make a shade lower price. Only about one-fifth of what will be needed is now in the hands of the dealers. Jobbers are completely out, and will be compelled to pay cordage prices. This means an extra expenditure of thousands of dollars to the farmers of the country.

DELAYED PATENTS.

Edison Gets a Couple After a Delay of Fifteen Years.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The commissioner of patents issued three patents to Thomas A. Edison, assignor to the Western Union telegraph, covering the features of a speaking telephone. The original application was filed in 1877, but, owing to the intervention of other applications covering the same invention, the patents were delayed. The last obstacle to the issuance of these patents was the Berliner application, upon which a patent was issued last November. These inventions of Edison have been granted foreign patents, some of which have already expired. This raises the question whether an American patent, issued after the expiration of a foreign patent, is valid, the application for the American patent having been filed prior to the date of the grant of the foreign patent. This question will, it is thought, be brought before the United States Supreme court, several circuit court judges having decided it in the negative.

MURPHY CONFIRMED.

NO OPPOSITION TO HIM FOR GOVERNOR.

The Nomination by President Harrison of Hon. N. O. Murphy as Governor Confirmed by the Senate Unanimously.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 9.—Arizona has a new governor in fact as well as in name. The nomination of Acting Governor Murphy by President Harrison to be governor of that territory was confirmed this afternoon by the senate. There was no opposition to his confirmation, the general feeling among the senators being that the appointment is a good one, and that Governor Murphy will give Arizona an able administration.

Ingersoll on National Politics.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 9.—Robert G. Ingersoll lectured here this evening, and in an interview talked freely on national politics. He said: "Harrison will make a weak candidate. Judge Gresham or Maj. McKinley are much more preferable. McKinley is a strong man and made a magnificent canvass. Blaine would make a strong race, but I don't think he would accept the nomination. His strength would be affected by the announcement that he would not accept the nomination."

Speaking of the report that Cleveland had been persuaded to forego his ambition for the presidency, and his friends had decided on a substituting Chief Justice Melvin Fuller, Mr. Ingersoll said: "The only opposition to Fuller's candidacy is that it is hardly consistent with American ideas to hold the office of chief justice and also become a candidate for president. If he should resign it would give President Harrison a chance to appoint a Republican, and the Democrats wouldn't agree to it."

Col. Ingersoll thought the Democracy could not afford to nominate either Hill or Cleveland, and thought the tariff would be the paramount issue of the campaign.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—Frank E. Maron, treasurer of the Duncan B. Harrison and John L. Sullivan building company, now playing the Bijou theatre in this city was arrested here yesterday afternoon on an information before Alderman McManis on a charge of the embezzlement of about $2,000 the property of the affiant. Maron gave bail for a hearing Saturday morning. The information was made by D. B. Harrison for himself alone.

The Double Postal Card.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 9.—It is expected that the double card will be ready for sale at the United States postoffice on July 1 next. It is the only means yet provided for the payment in the international mail service of return postage by the sender of a communication, and with the large-sized postal card, introduced by the present administration, quite a long message can be sent and received at a cost of 4c.

The necessary money has nearly all been subscribed and Washington street will be well graded from Mr. Logan's house, where the street car turns towards the depot, to the park, a distance of nearly a mile.

This will be a big improvement and will repay for the expenditure. The citizens of Phoenix are now getting thoroughly awake to improvement, and private subscription, private enterprise and public spiritedness override the little financial obstacles the city has to contend with. The course adopted, if carried out, will soon make this city of 25,000 inhabitants.

THE GLOBE TOLL ROAD.

Its Construction Will Begin Tomorrow.

TOM KING HAS THE CONTRACT.

Parties Already on the Ground and King Will Superintend.

The Building Now an Assured Fact—A Great Convenience—Grading on Washington Street.

The building and early completion of the globe toll road is now an assured fact and Tom King of this city has the contract. Active work will begin tomorrow and there will be no cessation till the work is completed.

This road was surveyed some months ago and all the necessary capital has been subscribed to complete it.

Just how large a force will be put on it is not yet definitely known, but plowing and scraping by several teams is assured from the beginning.

The road when completed will draw a large trade to the valley and at the same time open up the market for hay, grain and valley produce.

While Tempe will be the town mostly benefited at this end of the road, it will materially assist all sections.

The citizens of Tempe subscribed quite liberally for this road and they will now reap the reward for their enterprise and liberality.

A NOTED PILOT.

Hi Jolly, the Greek, Who Trained the Ships of the Desert.

The publication some days ago in THE REPUBLICAN under the head of "Stray Ships of the Desert," brings to the notice of the public a man who enjoys the happy distinction of being Uncle Sam's camel trainer. No other man has ever held this position.

Hi Jolly, the party referred to, has been in this city during the past three days. He is a Greek by birth, and relates anecdotes with a cleverness that would make Mark Twain jealous for the honors.

Hi came over from Syria with Admiral Porter, during Buchanan's administration, with the fifty-three camels to be used in exploring the "Ships of the Desert." The camels were broke to carry burdens and also to drive in harness. Mr. Jolly related his first experience on reaching Los Angeles: A German picnic was in full blast near the city. A span of camels were hitched to a wagon and a party of soldiers driven by Hi Jolly went to the picnic. About 300 teams were hitched around the grounds and half of them broke loose; wagons and carriages were smashed, women and children screamed, men shouted and riot reigned supreme. Mr. Jolly placed himself under protection of the military and was in hiding for five days, before the irate "sons of the Fatherland" curbed their angry passions and allowed the caravan to proceed.

"The Old Pilot" says a remnant of the footsore camels were gathered and sent to Australia after a two year's exilic confinement on the gravelly plains of Arizona.

He thinks at least 300 are yet at large as they have proven prolific though unprofitable in the arid region of the Pacific slope.

HE CAME TO GRIEF.

AN ALLEGED PREACHER ARRESTED AT CONFERENCE.

He is Charged With Obtaining Money Under False Pretences—"Tribulations Never Surprise the Chosen."

Associated Press Dispatches.

OMAHA, Neb., May 9.—Rev. J. B. Bell was taken from the general conference here at noon today and assigned to temporary quarters at the police station. The "reverend" gentleman's very shiny silk plug and very ministerial broadcloth coat did not grace the patrol wagon. Detective Vizard, in citizen's clothes, made the arrest while the conference was in session and accompanied him to the station. The good brother did not blanch when the minion of the law touched his shoulder, but quietly, mildly protesting that such tribulations never surprise the "chosen."

The "Rev." J. B. Bell is not a delegate, but from all accounts a wolf in sheep's clothing. His arrival had been expected, and he will be forwarded to the authorities at Lincoln, where he will answer to the charge of having obtained money under false pretences. His method has been to negotiate in an off hand manner a loan of $10 or $15 to cover temporary necessities. In this his activity of manner and elegant apparel have been of great assistance.

T., after which an interesting literary and musical programme will be given. The entertainment will close with strawberries and ice cream, and everybody is invited to be present.

A cave-in occurred last night on the east side of the cellar in course of excavation by McNulty & Chapman, which quite seriously endangers the west wall of the building owned by Talbot & Hubbard, as a hardware store. Deputy Marshal James Blankenship, explored the cellar and sent for Mr. Talbot. Some workmen were secured and before morning the wall will probably be safe.

HE TOOK THE FAMILY.

ARRAIGNED FOR UNLAWFUL LIVING WITH THREE WOMEN.

Irvine J. Stewart Arrested for Practicing Polygamy—A Mother and Two Daughters Weeping for Jealousy.

The United States commissioners court is again quite active. Irvine J. Stewart, a freighter, is arrested for living with three women—a mother and her two daughters.

Some time during September last Mr. Stewart, who had but a short time before separated from his wife—she going away with a handsomer man—came to Harrisburg on the Harqua Hala, accompanied by Mrs. Bowers and her two daughters, Clara Bowers and Sarah Lamb. Mrs. Bowers is now a widow and the daughters are the result of two marriages. Her first husband was a Lamb. After his death she married Bowers, from whom she was divorced and restored to her former wedded name. The widow is suffering with a temporary affection which rendered it impossible for her to be brought to this city, while the elder daughter is in a delicate condition and will soon become a mother.

The young daughter, who is but sixteen, with auburn hair and fascinating optics, accompanied the benighted under the guidance of Fred Wentworth, to whose charge they were consigned for safe delivery at Jerry Milley's court.

Depositions were taken of the widow and elder daughter, but they did not criminate themselves.

Sarah explains her present condition by the assertion that she was married shortly before leaving Utah, while the old lady said her daughters were old enough to look after their own interests.

It seems to be a custom among the vendors of polygamy to allow their daughters full liberty to do as they please after eight years of age.

The case was called at 2:30 yesterday and set for hearing at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Stewart's bond was fixed at $300 and was signed by Fred Wentworth and Chas. Goldman.

The quartette who act as principals in this case claim their arrest is the result of spite work. They eat and live in a big tent, but Mr. Stewart says he has always slept in the wagon.
